

DEEP CHANNEL TO CHEAPEN LIVING

Lakes-to-Gulf Deep Waterway Would Reduce High Cost of Existence, Is Claim

CONVENTION IS IN SESSION

Plan Put Forward to Use Panama Canal Machinery to Deepen River

Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway association. Project—A 14 to 24 foot waterway trunk line from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico. Significance—Lower living cost to millions of persons. Water freight rates are one-tenth of rail rates. Cost—Considerably less than cost of Panama canal. Method—Transfer workers and machinery from completed Panama canal to deep waterway project.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 24.—A deep waterway from the great lakes to the Gulf of Mexico would lower the cost of living to the millions of people in the Mississippi valley and eventually to the whole population of the United States. This claim was made in the opening address of President William K. Kavanaugh of St. Louis at the annual convention of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway association, Illinois made it impossible for President Kavanaugh to read his paper and Vice President E. S. Colway performed this duty.

Beats Panama Canal

The project would benefit the country more than the Panama canal declared Kavanaugh, and he suggested that the workers and machinery employed on the isthmus be transferred from the completed canal to the Mississippi river. The deep waterways would cost considerably less than the Panama canal, said Kavanaugh. "A very important phase of this deep waterway," he declared, "has been indicated by recent record breaking floods in the Mississippi valley. The floods have been more damaging than any gone before. I am in favor of the federal government taking over the levees and perfecting them along the most advanced scientific principles. High levees were not high enough to overcome the flood danger. Constant dredging was necessary," said Kavanaugh.

"The development would conserve the richest alluvial region in the world," he said, "capable of supporting the population of the entire planet. The value of the Panama canal is a mere bagatelle compared to this completed project. I do not believe that the canal will be of that benefit to the people of the United States that its cost would indicate unless this deep waterway is quickly completed."

Reduces Freight Cost

The argument that the deep waterway would lower the living cost was based on the report of O. P. Austin, expert of the commerce and labor department at Washington. "The average price of transporting wheat on railways is ten cents per bushel for 1,000 miles, on the ocean one cent per bushel for 1,000 miles," said Austin. President Kavanaugh also showed that the rail rate in the great lakes territory was nine and one-half times the water rate.

The temperature has fallen in the Dakotas and Montana and to freezing or below at several stations. It is warmer throughout the section covered by the low.

More than 500 Sailors Are Ironic and Government Is Alarmed by Conditions

ARE RUSSIAN ZING FINLAND

Czar Steps In and with High Hands Takes Over Country's Affairs

BELGRADE, Sept. 24.—Government alarm with the extent of revolutionary movements among the men of the Russian Black sea fleet grows, according to advices received from Sevastopol today. More than 500 sailors, and petty officers are in irons. Arrests are made on the merest suspicion. The breach block machinery is taken from many guns in case of mutiny. Troops on land are said to be in sympathy with the navy plotters. No newspaper may print and no correspondent telegraph anything concerning the situation.

Interfere in Finland

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 24.—As a result of the czar's attempt to Russianize the Finnish pilot service, more than seventy vessels have been run ashore in the gulf of Finland in a few weeks, according to reliable statistics here today.

The Russianizing of Finland is now in full swing, and serious disorders are threatened. The mayor of Viborg will be tried shortly for refusing special privileges to Russians. After his conviction—a foregone conclusion—nearly every mayor and city magistrate in Finland will be dealt with.

The Finnish national coinage has been abolished. The Russian press law has been proclaimed and all Finnish political offenders ordered tried by Russian courts.

Moscow Press Complains

VIENNA, Sept. 24.—"God save us from our misery," prays the Moscow German Gazette, in a recent issue received here today. With a bold disregard of the Russian press regulations, the editor continues: "The Egyptian plagues were acute cases but there was an end to them. The Russian plagues are like a murderous, insidious fever. They destroy millions morally and physically."

"The alcohol devil takes from the workman 27 per cent of his income. It brings the government $250,000,000 annual profit but it poisons hundreds of thousands annually."

"There are 141 holidays annually. The law literally forces the workman to 'bum.'"

"The passport is another plague. If a student seeks study abroad in vacation outside the boundaries, he pays $8.50 for every six months' absence."

CONFESSED CRIME HE DID NOT DO

Youth Received $10,000 Promise to Make False Confession of Murder

DENVER, Col., Sept. 24.—Declaring that, upon the promise of a reward of $10,000 he had falsely accused himself of a murder so that another man might be pardoned from the penitentiary, Jacob Krasno, a Russian youth is under arrest today following a chase lasting six months. The search led from Iowa to New York and back to Denver.

Krasno confessed to murdering Mrs. Mathilda Hersmeier, aged reclusive living near Newton, Iowa, who was found dead in her farm house February 25, 1911. She had been shot through the temple and her house had been robbed. Leo Krampe, son of a wealthy farmer, was arrested, convicted after three trials and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Krasno then left Iowa and from New York wrote Governor Carroll saying Krampe was innocent and that he (Krasno) had murdered the woman.

STRIKE TROUBLE OVER

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 24.—Although no definite steps have yet been taken looking to a settlement of the strike of 5,000 union miners at Bingham, there was a strong belief today that further serious trouble would be averted. The resignation of Leonidas Skirlis as employment agent of the Utah Copper company has made a favorable impression on the strikers, who accused Skirlis of having tried to practice a peonage system by charging foreigners a fee for jobs he secured them.

WORKERS WIN POINT.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 24.—Judge J. F. Quinn today granted the application for a bill of particulars in the cases of Joseph Etter and Arturo Giovannitti, charged with being accessory to the murder of Anna Lopizzo during the Lawrence textile strike last winter.

Murphy Must Change His Plans or the Candidate Will Open Fire

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—When Gov. Wilson makes his speech Friday night in Albany, N. Y., he will declare open war on Charles F. Murphy and Tammany Hall, unless by that time Murphy has abandoned the renomination of Gov. John A. Dix. The biggest hall in Albany has been rented for the governor and he positively has declared that he will open with his heaviest artillery against Tammany if the Dix proposition is not abandoned. If the matter apparently is settled by Friday night, the governor will not touch on the New York situation.

Gov. Wilson, who was to be in Princeton today, to vote in the primaries, will return to Sea Girt tonight, and tomorrow will come to New York to start on his New England trip.

CREELMAN'S LANGUAGE HARD

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Former Police Commissioner Cropsey was expected to testify today when the aldermanic police graft probe was resumed. ## BRIDGE WRANGLE MAY BE SERIOUS

Day Declares Company has No Right to Close West Channel Bridge

CONTEST IN CONTROVERSY

Dengler to Hold a Consultation with the City Attorney; May Station Men on Structure

Declarations on the part of Mr. James Day, president of the board of public works, today, indicate that the West Channel bridge controversy between the La Crosse Bridge company and the city of La Crosse may end in serious trouble between the city and the La Crosse Bridge company. Mr. Day emphatically declared that he will keep the bridge open for travel no matter what steps are necessary.

The trouble grew out of the refusal of the city to accept the work and pay the contract price, city officials holding that the work is not satisfactory. J. F. McDonough, president of the La Crosse Bridge company, then decided to close the bridge for repairs, but it is believed that this is merely a plan to force the city into paying for the bridge.

Mr. McDonough holds that as the city has not accepted the bridge or paid for it, the structure is still the property of the La Crosse Bridge company, and that they have the right to close the bridge if they deem it advisable.

Day Will Act

"If Mayor Dengler doesn't take steps to prevent the La Crosse Bridge company from closing the West Channel bridge, I will." This is the declaration of James Day, president of the board of public works.

"Officers of the bridge company have threatened to close the bridge September 30 thus cutting off all traffic from Minnesota, using alleged necessity of repairs as a pretext," said Mr. Day. "Under the terms of the contract between the city and the La Crosse Bridge company, the West Channel bridge must be open for traffic at all times during repair and as a member of the board of public works, I shall take it upon myself to see that it is."

To Station Men

When asked what steps he would take if barricades were placed at the ends of the bridge, Mr. Day said: "In that case I shall immediately have them torn down and if necessary will station men at the bridge to see that a clear passage way is provided for Minnesota farmers wishing to trade in La Crosse."

Mayor Dengler, when interviewed as to his proposed action, said: "I have not decided upon any action as yet but will hold a consultation with the city attorney."

Members of the board of public works who are in charge of the improvement of the La Crosse road, today said that the work will be continued.

DENIES HABEAS CORPUS

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 24.—The first attempt at freedom by mine guards, convicted and imprisoned by the military commissioner under national law in the strike zone, failed today when Judge B. F. Keller in federal court at Huntington, W. Va., refused to permit the filing of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

Joseph M. Sanders, for the imprisoned guards, challenged the constitutionality of the governor's martial law proclamation. The contest is a matter for the state supreme court, Judge Keller held.

POLICE BAFFLED

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Acting Police Chief Schuetzler today released all the witnesses being held in connection with the police investigation of the escape of two Canadian bank robbers who are supposed to have made away with $727,000 from a bank in New Westminster, B. C. Although the officer would not admit it, police attaches believed that he failed to obtain any important information from the three men and one woman who were being held.

WANTED OTHER POST

TOKIO, Sept. 24.—Prince Kabura's objection to the post of privy seal, which was forced on him after he returned from Russia was due to his wish to become an elder statesman, it was said today.

AMERICAN BEATS POWERS

INTER-STATE FAIR TO BREAK ALL RECORDS

THIRD TICKET IS MOOSERS' PLAN

Third Party State Central Committee in Milwaukee Today to Name Slate

WON'T OPPOSE M'GOVERN

Unofficial Talk Today Is that No Candidate for Governor Will Be Named

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 24.—The bull moose state central committee went into executive session here at 11 o'clock this morning, with a determination to place legislative candidates in the field in every district in the state.

It is possible that presidential electors for Roosevelt will also be put in the field.

It was stated before the meeting that all hope of Governor McGovern coming out for Roosevelt has passed, but there is good authority for the statement that no candidate for governor will be put up against McGovern, owing to his supposed secret friendship for the Roosevelt movement.

Whether a state ticket from lieutenant governor down will be put in the field is a problem to be settled at the meeting today.

The movement for a legislative ticket is said to have been unanimous.

WILL GIVE TOWN LAKE

MT. HOREB, Wis., Sept. 24.—This city being devoid of a natural lake or stream sufficient to provide bathing, boating and fishing, citizens under the leadership of C. E. Mickelson, village president, have started a movement to build an artificial lake. A small stream will be obstructed and the water turned into a forty acre plot of low ground.

The Lake Park association of Mount Horeb was incorporated today, with capital stock of $10,000.

GETS NEW TRIAL

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 24.—The retrial of Dr. George A. Fritch, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Maybelle Gilman of Ann Arbor, came up in the recorder's court yesterday. Fritch was convicted of performing an illegal operation on the girls, dismembering her body and hiding it in a swamp where it was afterwards found.

WOMEN WORK IN INHUMAN SHOPS

Conditions in Empire State Where Girls Are Employed Reported Past Belief

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—"We have found that conditions under which women worked in New York state are inhuman almost beyond belief," declared State Senator Robert F. Wagner today, discussing the investigations of the state factory investigating committee and predicting that similar organizations would soon be created in every state in the union, and by the federal government.

The New York investigating body was appointed immediately after the Triangle Shirt Waist fire to investigate conditions throughout the state and to suggest legislative reforms.

"We have found men and women working in illy ventilated, poorly lighted, congested quarters. Particularly were conditions under which we found women working open to censure," said Wagner. "In Buffalo we saw hundreds of women, young and old, working in the slaughter houses, on wet and damp floors, doing man's labor."

"In Utica we found women working in core foundries, beside ovens of molten metal, lifting and straining at heavy burdens, with only the poisonous fumes from the metal to breathe. In Auburn in the harvester twine plant we found women standing at big machines 'spooling' twine. They had no place to seat themselves for a rest, standing all day, breathing the dust from the twine that was so dense that every half hour one girl would brush another's clothes off with a heavy broom. No provision for carrying away this dust was made."

BEACHEY READY TO PUT THRILLS INTO PROGRAM

Dare-devil King of the Wind to Make Two Flights This Afternoon

TUNES UP HIS AEROPLANE

More Than 8,000 Exhibits Entered in Annual Inter-State Show

FAIR WEATHER AT OPENING

Enormous Crowds Attend on La Crosse Day; Many Out-of-Town Visitors Here

Lincoln C. Beachey, who last week nearly gave Chicago a nervous prostration by his dare-devil stunts in his aeroplane, arrived last night in La Crosse prepared to put a few thrills into the program of the Interstate fair which opened today. Beachey will make two flights this afternoon one at 2:30 and one at 4 o'clock. He will take wing in front of the judges' stand on the race track and will fly north unless the wind changes.

Beachey is perhaps the most talked of aviator in the United States because of his wonderful control of the heavier than air machine. He has caused countless thousands to gasp in wonder while he manipulated his machine in dangerous "spiral glides," "shoot the shoots" and other tricks in riding the wind. He spent a large part of the morning tuning up his machine at the fair grounds and because of the favorable weather will undoubtedly make several spectacular flights today.

Records are Broken

Records were broken at the fair today when more than 400 exhibitors registered before noon when the registration closed. Judging of the exhibits which number more than 8,000 began at once. The big race program begins at 1:30 this afternoon with the 2:30 trot. President Jr., owned by Shadob of Caledonia and driven by Millard of La Crosse is the only local horse entered and is expected to make a good showing in the race.

C. S. VanAuken, secretary of the Inter-State fair association today predicted that the largest crowd in the history of the La Crosse fair will attend the exhibition today.

"The weather is ideal," said Mr. Van Auken, "and all indications are that we will have the most successful fair in our history this week. We have broken all records in number of exhibitors and exhibits and the program is such that it should attract visitors from a large radius in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa. I expect the gates to register several thousand more today than any day we have ever had before."

The forerunner of the immense crowds which thronged the fair, broke at noon today, started at an early hour this morning and steadily increased until at 11:30 several hundred were on the grounds. No estimate of this afternoon's attendance could be made, but with the closing of business houses at noon and the arrival of local trains, thousands of persons turned their attention to the inter-state fair.

Street cars loaded to their full capacity, with men standing on the steps and utilizing every square inch of room, ran at intervals of two minutes, while automobiles and vehicles of every description hurried back and forth, adding to the streams of humanity which steadily poured through the gates.

Large crowds arrived from villages on the Southeastern, Milwaukee and Burlington railroad during the forenoon, adding greatly to the attendance of the opening day. Every business house in the city and all public offices suspended work at noon to permit the employees to attend the fair on La Crosse day.

Two rows of tents, lining the pike, extend from the grand stand to the southern gate of the grounds. The usual assortment of shows are conspicuous on the pike, while the raucous tones of the leather-lunged ballyhoo artists resound above the general clamor and the crowd jostles here and there, bent on seeing all the sights.

The stock pavilions were the center of attraction for a large number of this morning's spectators. Several of the cattle on exhibition have been awarded prizes at both the Wisconsin and Minnesota state fairs and are among the best breeds of the middle west.

The poultry exhibits are exceptional. (Continued on Page Six)

MRS. LA FOLLETTE TO SPEAK HERE

Wife of Senator Will Address La Crosse Audience on Equal Suffrage Question

Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, the talented wife of the senior senator from Wisconsin, will speak in La Crosse next Friday on the equal suffrage question according to address received by the local suffrage association last night. Mrs. La Follette will be accompanied by Mrs. Glendower Evans, noted clubwoman of Massachusetts, who will also speak in the interests of the votes for women campaign.

Mrs. Evans has won fame in the east as the author of the minimum wage law which was recently enacted in Massachusetts and is an accomplished and talented orator and writer.

Mrs. La Follette is recognized as one of the best woman suffrage advocates in the United States and has been an enthusiastic supporter of that movement for several years. A student of politics, especially from the woman's point of view, she has attained more than ordinary prominence through several of the most influential magazines in the country. She has also taken an active part in the speaking campaigns which have been carried on in nearly every state in the union.

An attempt will be made to obtain the consent of the management of the interstate fair to permit Mrs. La Follette and Mrs. Evans to speak at the fair grounds Friday afternoon. Both women will probably speak in some downtown hall in the evening. More definite plans will be announced by the local committee either tomorrow or Thursday.

LIFTS BAN ON MACHINE HORNS

Change in Old Ordinance Made Necessary by Increasing Number of Accidents

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 24.—The traffic ordinance here which for several years has prevented motorists from using all kinds of warning signals except hand-operated bulb horns has been repealed. The new law that supplants it goes into effect today.

This provides that all automobiles must be equipped with signals capable of producing an "abrupt note, sufficiently loud to be heard under all conditions of traffic. It restricts their use, however, to times of actual necessity.

In both respects the new measure is exactly similar to ordinances recently enacted by the councils of Chicago, St. Louis, Newark and other large cities throughout the country.

THEATRE NEWS

A comedy that solves the problems of combining clean-cut, ever-bubbling laughter with charming, elevating romance and a series of vivid pictures of youthful American life has just received the stamp of metropolitan approval and patronage. It is "Putting it Over," a new comedy by Lee Arthur and Frank Hatch, which will appear at the La Crosse theater tomorrow night, direct from the summer run at the Olympic theater, Chicago, with its notable cast and production intact.

The story of "Putting it Over" deals with an interesting phase of the upward struggles of American youth today. The young man who finally "puts it over" is a rich man's son. Poverty smites his father at the moment when the boy is most deeply in love. His real worth and staunch courage are instantly proved by the test. The young man, a college student and a trained athlete, promptly faces the world and after difficulties, criss-crossed with comical episodes, turns the tide to victory and wins the girl he loves.

"Putting it Over," under the direction of Frank Hatch, is depicted in four beautiful pictures. The cast is one of distinction and ability and includes such sterling artists as Harold Vosburgh, Franklin Ritchie, Joseph Woodburn, Frederick Burt, Royal Tracy, Francis Joyner, C. E. Harris, Allison Skipworth, Veda Steele and Helen Holmes.

"THE DIVORCE QUESTION"
Wm. Anthony McGuire's play, "The Divorce Question," will be produced at the La Crosse theater, September 26, under the management of Fowland and Clifford. This gripping play was one of the sensational successes of the past season in Chicago 107 performances being given at McKivier's theater.

The story of the play shows that pathetic phase of life wherein children are sacrificed to the selfishness of divorce; there is too much said about the duty that children owe their parents, far too little is said regarding the obligation of the parents. No human being has the right to become responsible for another's existence and then create conditions that ruin the life of that other being. A strong, vibrating love story runs throughout and a pair of youthful lovers furnish abundant comedy.

"FAUST"
One of the very few plays which will bear repeating to the public and which no doubt, will outlive even that time honored story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is "Faust," the attraction at the La Crosse theater on next Friday, September 27.

Just as rapidly as improvements are made in stage lighting effects and electricity in general, so also does the production of "Faust" improve. Formerly producers of this grand tragedy were compelled to do their best with the aid of gas and fireworks, but with latter day facilities, electricity solely is used, which not only adds to the spectacular and realistic embellishments of "Faust," but makes the performance uniform and sure, as well as adding to the safety of the performers and public.

SCHOOL ORATORS TO SELL CONFECTIONERY

The Lincoln Douglas Debating society of the high school will operate a stand at the fair and will sell all sorts of confectionery. The boys find it necessary to do this to support the forensics at the high school, there not being enough interest in the different oratorical contests and debates to defray the expenses.

Although figures won't lie, a careful research always shows a few favorable to your side of the argument. Hint to salesmen. It is hard to make a man loosen up by intimating that he is a cheap skate.

labor, the regulation of wireless telegraphy, the requirement of two wireless operators on every ocean vessel, the creation of an industrial commission, and other acts might be cited which directly and vitally affect the morals or well being of the nation. Are these not "important?"

Right at this time Stanley W. Finch, an experienced official of the department of justice, who has done so much to enforce the "white slave" law, and who already has sent 300 culprits to prison, says that if he had a million dollars, he could stamp out the evil in one year's time, and that if he had a quarter of a million more each year, he could keep it stamped out. Is not that an "important" proposition? How does it compare with a wool tariff bill, or even with a currency reform act? Some 50,000 persons live on the tariff in vice; which is more important, to put these out of business, or to bring down the price of certain commodities a little?

We are all apt to overestimate the importance of laws and issues. An issue that concerned every person in the United States to the extent of five cents would instantly seize a front place on the stage of public discussion. Yet it would make absolutely no difference to anybody's welfare which way it was decided. Another issue that affected only a thousand people out of a hundred million, might be unable to get a hearing, even though it meant life or death to those one thousand, and the saving of their souls as well as their bodies.

It is these so-called minor laws—which really are the most important of all—that reflect the actual intelligence and morality of a nation. The wisest and most civilized nation is not the one that has the lowest tax rate, nor the one that keeps out foreign competition most effectively, nor the one that enables its citizens to get the biggest share of foreign trade. It is the nation that makes life the most secure and wholesome—the nation that goes farthest to promote health, safety and public morals, and to keep down the army of human wolves and leeches that openly attach or secretly drain the blood, the soul and the money of the people.

When congress tinkers the tariff or passes a pension bill, it has only made a scratch on the surface of the ground; when it passes a law like the match law, the patent medicine law or the white slave law it has built a monument that will stand long after its political and pocketbook legislation is forgotten.

WHAT IS MEANT BY "IMPORTANT" LAWS

The recent congress has often been criticised for its failure to pass "important" legislation. It has passed a lot of minor pieces of legislation, they say, but the really big ones—the excise bill, the currency bill and the like—it has failed to act upon.

What is an "important" law? Is it one that affects everybody slightly, or one that affects half the people considerably, or one that affects a few people vitally? We cannot furnish a tapeline that can be applied to any law so as to give an exact measure of its importance, but we would remind readers that some of the laws passed by congress which the politicians are not talking about are not only important, but highly so.

For example, a law was passed taxing the ordinary white phosphorus match out of existence. Hereafter the "parlor match and the "eightday" match will disappear, and the only kind obtainable will be the kind with the brown head that comes in little boxes and which strikes only on its own box. This is a small matter on the stump, but a large matter for the American people. For one thing, it saves hundreds of human beings, and in the long run thousands, from suffering the agonizing, loathsome and fatal effects of phosphorus poisoning. A second benefit is in the prevention of fires. From this alone the country will probably reap more millions of real money than it would have done from any of the tariff bills that congress did, or did not pass.

Congress also has restored the clause in the pure food and drug law which the medicine fakers had managed to rub out. They got the law interpreted so they could claim anything as to the curative properties of medicine, as long as they told no lies about its chemical composition. Thus a rascal could—and hundreds did—bottle up salt and water and sell it as a "cure" for consumption, cancer or insanity.

Now the law very properly forbids the label from telling any kind of lie. The seller not only must state the composition correctly, but must stay within the bounds of reason in claiming its curative virtues. If he claims absurd curative powers for some inert dope that every doctor, druggist and chemist knows is worthless, he is properly condemned as a swindler. This law, like the match law, offers little campaign material, but it will save thousands of lives and millions of pocketbooks.

Effective Home Remedy for Tuberculosis

It is a serious matter when the lungs are affected. A trip away or to a sanatorium is not only expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are benefited, but few can safely return. Eckman's Alternative is effective for home treatment. For example: 231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J.

"Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold, which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now five years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alternative too highly. I have recommended it with excellent results."

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Geo. All Done For

A British soldier in a hospital at Cairo was feigning insanity, with the hope of being ordered home. After two days devoted to this object he was delighted to notice a grave expression on the medical officer's face as he approached his bed.

"Well, Jenkins," inquired the doctor, "how are you this morning?"

By way of reply Jenkins rolled his eyes, tossed his arms, and broke into hoarse speech.

"We're all done for! The citidel's attacked! We're surrounded and there's no chance of escape!"

The medical officer retired. The next morning he inquired again, "How are you this morning, Jenkins?"

"Bit better, sir," replied the soldier, who had been kept on a milk diet. "And I'd thank you to change my milk diet, sir."

"Very sorry, my man," was the answer, "but the citadel is attacked, and we are all surrounded. Milk is the only stuff we can get through for the next two months."

Jenkins left the hospital the next day—cured!

Real Reading

Mr. Newrich, the Pittsburg millionaire, was furnishing the library of his magnificent mansion.

"Let me see," he mused. "You've got the order for the $85,000 edition de luxe of Dickens bound in levant."

"Yes, sir," replied the bookseller.

"And the $10,000 set of Shakespeares?"

"Yes, sir."

"And the standard authors, bound in calf—Thackeray, Scott, all of them three other fellows?"

"Yes, sir, I have a memorandum of the entire list."

"Well, then that's off my mind," said Mr. Newrich of Pittsburg, with a sign of relief. "Now, what is something to read? Say, have you got a complete set of 'Old Sleuth'?"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Mamma—No, dear, you had better not play in the park if your head aches. Little Beatrice—It isn't my head, mamma; I think it's only my hair that hurts.

"Young man," said the father of a bright boy, "this school report of yours is very unsatisfactory. I don't like it." "I told teacher I didn't think you would," replied the little fellow, "but she was too contrary to change it."

Small Boy—Sister said to ask if you had any invisible ink.

New Drug Clerk (after looking among some bottles)—I guess we haven't—at least I don't see any.

Small boy (contemptuously)—Huh! How do you expect to see it if it's invisible?

Head Furst

An Irishman had obtained casual employment in carrying goods to the top floor of a very high building. After his first ascent he found himself unable to discover the way down, and his employer, thinking he was gone a long time, called up, "Pat, why don't you come down?" "I don't know the way, sor," replied Pat. "Well, come down the way you went up." "Faith, an' not for all the world, wif!" declared the Irishman. "For I came up head furst."

"Tell me where the car is and who your accomplice is," said the stranger in the short sharp tones of one born to command, "and you two can go free. If you don't tell, I'll do my best to have you arrested and sent up for grand larceny. Understand?"

"Oh, yes," said Mike, "I understand. When I was young I learned English, foolishly, as I haven't used it since."

"We don't know where your damn car is," declared James. "And we didn't steal your blooming outfit. What do you take us for, anyway?"

"Very well, then," snapped the stranger. "I see that you won't tell. Remember, I gave you your chance."

He turned and hurried down the village street. The two watched him as he stopped a pedestrian and apparently asked to be directed to the justice of the peace, then they slipped away in the woods and quietly, simultaneously, turned north, falling into a gentle lope that took them far with the minimum of effort.

"I hope the kid ain't pinched," said James, after a while.

Mike sighed and shook his head. "Grand larceny," he murmured. "That's gratitude for you."

CHAPTER IX. On the Road.

The general never went anywhere without a well-stocked library, guide-books, instruction books, maps. All were consulted long and often, and with a childlike faith that Henrietta's sarcasm and the sign-posts had not been able to shake.

If the guide-book read, "White rock on left," the general stopped the car if the rock were not immediately seen where it should be according to the book and refused to go farther until it had been discovered. If the rock could not be located, the general ran back a little way or ahead a little way and if the white rock still refused to be seen on the left, the general did not see what right any one had to remove valuable landmarks. Henrietta's tentative endeavor to point out the possibility that the book was mistaken, doubtless unintentionally, but still mistaken, was simply waved aside as one more indication of woman's inferiority to man. If the book said that there was a hill at such and such a place and there was in fact no hill there, the book was still correct. There was something the matter with the landscape.

Bartlett knew of this unfortunate tendency of the general's and resolved to get rid of those books and maps and papers. With every mile indicated and nicely tabulated, every turn and landmark mentioned, it would be almost impossible to get off the beaten route, and they must avoid telegraph stations and post-offices as much as possible. The success of the scheme lay in keeping Batchelor away from all touch and communication with the city. They must, if possible, get lost, and with the multitudinous books and maps they could not be able to. Therefore, they must get rid of the books and maps.

When they had separated to prepare for the trip, Bartlett returned hastily to the garage. No one was in sight except a strange chauffeur lounging in the doorway. Bartlett collected all the literature from the general's car and hastened back to the hotel. Surprisingly, he entered an empty room near the one assigned to him and when he emerged again, his arms were burdened and he was smiling gently.

They waited for the Watermelon on the porch, intending to have an early supper and start while it was still light. Bartlett greeted the return youth with relief and led the way to the dining-room. He mentioned a small village some thirty miles to the north, where they could find accommodations for the night in an old farm-house.

"Friends of mine," said he. "I go there every fall."

The general rose to get his blue book. "We will look it up," said he.

Bartlett stopped him. The town was not in the book. He knew, for he had tried to find it.

"The maps will do," said the general, who liked to locate every town visually on the maps or in the books before he undertook to motor there.

Desperate, Bartlett declared that it was not on the maps. But the general would not be daunted. They could put it on the maps themselves if they knew in which county it was, near what post-office.

"We don't want to locate it," said Bartlett, growing stern and cross of a necessity.

They found the cars waiting at the steps and a small crowd to see them off and while away the time before supper.

Bartlett said, as he knew the way, he would lead. "We need only two cars. Mr. Batchelor's car can be left until we return."

"Three cars might come in handy," protested the general, who objected to every suggestion not his own, on principle.

"Why?" asked Bartlett.

"Mr. Batchelor might become offended at us and want to ride by himself," suggested Henrietta, laughing.

"Yes," agreed Billy, who, though young and charming, was sometimes lacking in that reserve that should

"I commenced to doctor with all the doctors at home as well as with other specialists on stomach and digestive organs. None seemed to do any good—in fact, most of the medicines did me harm. Finally, I wrote to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., who replied, stating that I had liver complaint with indigestion and constipation, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' They 'put me on my feet again.' 'The Discovery' and 'Pellets' have 'put me on my feet again'—I seemed to be just what I needed. I could not have recovered without them."

have stamped her father's daughter. "He and dad are fighting each other now on 'Change'."

Henrietta flushed, the Watermelon laughed and the general looked pained at the thought of any possible lack of congeniality.

"My dear Billy," said Bartlett, "the third auto would be extremely handy for you and your tongue, at least."

Billy glanced miserably from one to the other. "Why, Daddy, you told me, yesterday—"

"I have told you many things," said Bartlett, "both yesterday and the day before."

He took the general by the arm and gently but firmly thrust him into his car, getting in himself and taking the wheel. The young folk could ride in the tonneau and Alphonse follow in the general's car with the luggage.

The cars started down the hill in the first sweet flush of evening. Birds were going to bed with noisy upbraiding. A few cows at the pasture bars watched them pass by with great, stupid, placid eyes, jaws going slowly, rhythmically, as they waited for the milking time. Now they flashed from the shadows of the woods to the open country, pastures and rolling grain fields on each hand. Now they plunged among the trees again with the drowsy twitter of birds and the clear babbling of a brook somewhere off among the ferns and brambles.

NO LAW AGAINST FLOWERS

DENVER, Col., Sept. 24.—There is no general law of the church against the use of flowers in church funeral services but the church does not approve it. It merely tolerates it."

Rev. Percy O. Phillips, secretary of Bishop Matz of the Catholic diocese of Denver thus discussed Rev. Shanley's order today. "I think Rev. Shanley takes a sensible view of the matter. What the church wants is not flower show, but spiritual show at funerals and for that reason most pastors do not specifically forbid their presence."

TOO SACRED FOR ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Father Shanley said: "Money spent for flowers might better be spent for other things. Many bills are contracted for floral tributes which it is difficult to pay for months and then only at the sacrifice of personal comfort."

Rev. F. J. Prettyman, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church South, said: "The old custom is too sacred to be made a matter of economics. It is a question of each individual."

Biobbs—"I saw the doctor stop at your house yesterday. Anything serious?"

Siobbs—"I should say so. He came to collect his bill."

FIRST CAPITOL NOW IS PIGSTY

Wisconsin's First Territorial Building at Belmont Now Home of Hogs

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 24. — The site of Wisconsin's territorial capitol at Belmont will be dedicated by a fitting landmark on October 7th, when Mrs. Jessie R. Skinner of this city, chairman of the landmark committee of the Wisconsin federation of women's clubs, will present the monument to the state. For the past ten years the old capitol building has been resting a few rods from the site where it stood when the territory now comprising Wisconsin was first organized. The building itself had been used as a pig sty for the past five years or more.

Following the presentation of the monument to the state by Mrs. Skinner at the dedication exercises on October 7th, a speech of acceptance will be made either by Governor McGovern or his private secretary, Col. Duncan McGregor. Addresses will be made by Judge Robert G. Siebeck, representing the supreme court of Wisconsin; by Dr. Reuben G. Thwaites, secretary of the state historical society, and by Mrs. Wm. G. Crosby, president of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's clubs. A large number of Madison club women expect to attend the ceremonies. The monument is of Wisconsin mahogany granite from the quarries of the American Granite company of Milwaukee.

Belmont was the scene of one of the most spirited controversies over the location of a permanent seat of state government. There were seventeen applicants, many of the cities existing merely on maps issued by real estate "boomers." Through the influence of James Duane Doty who had been circuit judge for that portion of Michigan territory lying west of Lake Michigan, Madison won out. The first capitol at Madison cost $60,000. It soon proved inadequate and in 1882 two transverse wings were added to the building which had been remodeled and transformed in 1857. The total appropriation for enlargement of the capitol building and improvement of the park at Madison up to 1904 aggregated about $900,000. On Feb. 27th of that year a large part of the interior of the capitol and the central portion was destroyed by fire. Three wings of the new capitol which will cost $8,000,000 have already been raised. The central dome is now in process of construction and Lew F. Porter, secretary of the capitol building commission says that the final wing of the new capitol will be started next spring.

When a wedding party returned from Merstham church to Chaldron, near Redhill, Surrey, England, the other day, they were dismayed to find no wedding cake or other materials for the luncheon. It was found that the motor lorry in which a London firm of caterers had sent the goods had been completely burned down on the road, and the wedding party accordingly had to go without.

Putting His Foot in It.
The Woman—"My husband is forty today. You'd never believe that there is actually ten years difference in our ages." The Man—"Why, no, indeed. I'm sure you look every bit as young as he does."

Goodness, No.
First Week-End Guest—"Would you ask our hostess to lend us the motor?" Second Week-End Guest—"Good heavens, no. I'd as soon think of asking her for a piece of string!"—Life.

Old Fortification Sold.

At a Dublin auction mart the martello tower on the island of Shenick, near Skerries, was recently sold. The monument to the old style of resisting invasion was disposed of for a good price, but the name of the purchaser was not disclosed.

Still, we contend that a woman shouldn't kill her husband just because she doesn't believe in divorces.

Going fishing and catching fish are entirely different propositions. Probably the mother hen is the fiercest looking object for her size.

Not a Practical Man.

A little lad was found on the street crying very bitterly because his cart was broken. The kindly disposed stranger endeavored to cheer up the little fellow by saying: "Never mind, my boy, your father can easily mend that." "No he can't," sobbed the boy. "My father is a preacher, and don't know about anything."

Case of Ingratitude.

When Lord B— died a person met in old man who was one of his most intimate friends. He was pale, consumed, awe-stricken. Every one was trying to console him, but in vain. "This loss," he exclaimed, "does not affect me so much as his horrible ingratitude. Would you believe it? ### BRITISH SUBJECTS ARE IMPRISONED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 24.—An international controversy may result from the arrest of two British subjects Saturday night, when a rooming house was raided by the sheriff.

Lorne Wilkie and Adolph Merrill, residents of Windsor, Canada, who had arrived in Milwaukee an hour and a half before the raid, declared on Monday that a complaint would be made to their government upon their return to their homes, charging that while they were held in the county jail a request that they be allowed to communicate with a British consul was refused.

Sad Sequel to Wedding.

A landau in which a newly-married couple, the chief bridesmaid, and the "best man" were driving from church was knocked over by an electric trolley in Lille, near Paris, the other morning. The coachman had his legs broken, the bride, a girl of twenty-one, broke her right arm and was badly hurt in the head, her husband escaped without a scratch, and the bridesmaid and "best man" received internal injuries.

Roman Heating System.

Like many other Roman houses that have been unearthed in England, one recently brought to light was heated by a system called "hypocaust." The entire basement was one big furnace, from which flues ascended, built into the walls. A wood fire was kept in the basement, the fuel being fed in from an outside annex, through an arch in the wall. The house recently dug out is in a state of excellent preservation.

A man may boast of his tireless energy until he becomes tiresome. The fellow who thinks twice before he marries sometimes doesn't.

WILSON AT PRINCETON

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 24.—Princeton university was a-flutter today, expecting the visit this afternoon of Governor Wilson. It was to be his first visit to Old Nassau, where for so long he was "prexy," since his nomination by the Baltimore convention, and the students had arranged a huge demonstration for him. The occasion of Governor Wilson's visit to Princeton, his legal residence, was to vote in the primaries that among other things will settle the senatorship controversy in which former Congressman William Hughes and former Senator James Smith are democratic rivals.

CANNING SOCIAL EVENT

DANVILLE, Ind., Sept. 24.—Owing to the bounteous tomato crop this year and the lack of help, causing canning factories to be swamped, local society women have come to the aid of the canners. They came to the factories in automobiles and hacks and have been making it a society event. The money they earn will be distributed among the churches a number declared today.

High Price for a Rembrandt.

A work of Rembrandt—"Woman Plucking a Fowl"—recently sold in Paris for $95,000, appears to hold the record price for that artist's work. The same picture was sold in Amsterdam in 1734 (it was probably painted about 1640) for $70. In 1845 in London it brought about $1,625, and in 1884 was sold in Paris, to the family which has now resold it, for about $2,800. The previous record price for a Rembrandt was that paid for the "Girl Holding a Medal," in the Hoe collection, sold here last year for $70,000.

Footstool Church.

Mr. Raymond Unwin told a story relating to the building of St. John's church, South Square, Westminster. The architect, he said, was reputed to have worried Queen Anne about the design. Her majesty at length losing patience kicked her footstool over and remarked in anger: "Build it like that!" The architect fulfilled the royal wishes and the church was built as it stood today—with corners protruding upward like the four legs of a stool.—Reynolds's Newspaper.

National Characteristic.

A national characteristic of the French people is their habit of family exclusiveness. It is very rarely that a family divides for a holiday. For one thing, middle-class people in France do not pay visits except to members of their own family, and for another, a French mother likes to keep her children under her own eyes as much as possible, both before and after marriage.

Conjugal Amenities.

Wife—I saw Mrs. Becker this morning, and she complained that on the occasion of her last visit you were so rude to her that she thought she must have offended you. Husband—Nothing of the kind; on the contrary I like her very much, but it was rather dark at the time, and when I entered the room I thought at first it was you.

HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD SHORTLY

If cross, feverish, bilious and sick let "Syrup of Figs" clean its little waste-clogged bowels

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

The skiff quickly filled with water and sank, taking the goat with it. The goat was drowned.

FORBES-MCDONALD WEDDING

There was a quiet and small wedding this morning at the home of Mrs. M. E. Forbes, 304 South Seventh street, when her daughter, Miss Mary Alice and Mr. Robert George MacDonald were married. The ceremony took place at nine o'clock, the Rev. Henry Faville, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiated. The bride was gown in a pretty and simple dress of white marquisette over a petticoat of white satin. She carried a bunch of bride's roses. The rooms were decorated with autumn foliage, flowers, smilax and ferns. Only relatives were present. The out of town guests were Mrs. J. R. Grant of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Forbes of Hartford, Wis. and Miss Sanford of Horicon, Wis.

The bride was for seven years in charge of the children's room in the public library and during that time endeared herself to them all and it was genuine regret that they accepted her resignation. She is a prominent worker in the church and Sunday school and exceedingly popular with the younger set.

The bridegroom who is a La Crosse born, has been for many years connected with the R. G. Dun agency and is well and favorably known in the city. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald left on the noon train for Winnipeg for a two weeks' visit where they will visit relatives.

Take Time for breakfast.

Common sense indicates that breakfast should be a substantial meal, enough time should be allowed to eat the morning meal at leisure and enjoy it. The manner in which some people gobble down their breakfast is becoming only to an ostrich. It is one of the great reasons for the existence of what is sometimes called "American dyspepsia."

DUMMY IN WINDOW HAS A $500 SMILE

If you want to earn $500 easily, go down to the Continental store at 7:30 this evening and make it smile. "It" is a figure that will be displayed in the window of the store tonight and tomorrow night. It looks like a man, that an imitation man, or dummy, but it can smile, and the person that forces the smile gets $500. The "dummy" is one of the big advertising novelties of the year, and wherever it has been exhibited in the United States hundreds have congregated before the window and attempted to make it crack the $500 grin.

The figure bears a close resemblance to a human being, except for a distinctly waxen face, and acts the part of a dummy, propelled by jerky springs and cog wheels. "It" has proved to be an attraction extraordinary everywhere and placed everywhere in deep quandary as to just what it was. In consequence of the offer of a reward for a smile, there were scores of people doing pigeon wings, turkey trots, making faces and "cutting all sorts of capers," in their efforts to win the money. However, the figure has in the past steadfastly refused to do so much as bat an eye, let alone smile.

WILSON TO FIGHT DIX

CANDIDATE WILL TAKE HAND IN NEW YORK IF TAMMANY TRIES TO RE-NOMINATE THE GOVERNOR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—If the New York democrats at Syracuse October 1 attempt to renominate Gov. John A. Dix, Gov. Wilson will interfere. This became known yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the democratic advisory committee where campaign leaders who had visited the governor at Sea Girt after his return from his western trip told of his strong feeling on the New York governorship.

"Gov. Wilson wants to be president, but he does not want the office enough to gain it at the expense of his principals," was the message brought from Sea Girt. It became known at yesterday's meeting that Acting Chairman McAdoo so Gov. Wilson today for a conference and it was definitely settled that if Charles F. Murphy and Tammany persisted in their efforts to renominate Dix, the candidate and the national committee would feel justified in taking a hand.

Agricultural Exhibits.
The lower section of the grand stand has been set aside for agricultural exhibits, and nearly every farm product, including grains, vegetables and fruit are on exhibition. Among the agricultural exhibits of exceptional merit are potatoes, alfalfa and fruit. A large floral display occupies one end of this pavilion.

The fair building has been set aside to a large extent for the exhibition of manufacturers and merchants. A number of beautiful displays have been arranged. One section of this pavilion is given over to displays of the various domestic science and agricultural departments of the county and city schools.

Several of the large machine manufacturers have erected tents on the pike, where all kinds of modern machinery from automobiles to plows are to be seen.

Afternoon.
The chief feature of the day will be the aeroplane flight of Lincoln Beachey. Beachey will make several long distance flights as well as several of the thrillers. An exhibition will be given by a troupe of seven Scotch bag pipers in front of the grand stand between the races.

L. Wiggins was arrested on the same charge earlier in the day, but when it was shown that engine trouble forced him to come down in the park he was freed.

Simple Swimming Apparatus.
A swimming apparatus by means of which a person without any previous knowledge may pass through the water with perfect safety at the rate of sixteen miles an hour has been constructed by a French inventor. The apparatus consists of a plank about six feet long, with floats at each end. It can be folded and easily transported.

Saving Trays.
When a japanned tray becomes old and chipped give it two coats of white paint and one of enamel, the bottom as well as the top. Stand it on the edge to dry after each coat. It will be found as good as new, as well as very pretty. The enamel is easily renewed.

ATTEMPT TO ROB KRONER'S FOILED

An attempt to rob the Fred Kroner Hardware company store, 116-118 South Third street, was frustrated last night by the unexpected return to the store by Fred Kroner, Jr., secretary of the company. The attempt to burglarize the store occurred between 8:30 and 9 o'clock, and would have probably been successful if Fred Kroner had not returned to the store to look over some papers.

On entering the store Mr. Kroner noticed that the papers in his desk had been disturbed as though hastily searched for valuables. Looking for further evidence, Mr. Kroner found that the back door was open and several articles were scattered about as though dropped in the hasty flight of the burglars. Although a careful search was made, nothing of value was missed at the store, and it is believed that the thieves were forced to flee without booty. It is the belief of employees of the Kroner company that the burglar or burglars concealed themselves in the basement during the day and waited for night before attempting to rob the store. There were no marks on the windows or doors showing that the thieves had forced an entrance.

He will be in Pennsylvania and Ohio until Oct. 2 and will make Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Nevada and Kansas.

Depend Wholly on Coffee.

Coffee is the great staple produced by the civilized inhabitants of Liberia, and most of the planters are totally dependent on it. When the market price of coffee is so low that the yield will not pay the cost of labor and marketing and leave a margin sufficient for the needs of the planter, the plantations are neglected and, as there is no other crop to fall back on, a period of economic depression ensues.

Hardly Satisfactory.

Glancing hastily down the pages of Tommy Jones' examination papers, the teacher's heart thrilled over Tommy's unexpectedly good showing, for not one of the questions remained unanswered. But upon subjecting the paper to a more careful perusal her pride in Tommy's proficiency had a fall. After seven of the ten questions Tommy had written politely: "I am sorry that this is a subject on which I have no information."

NORMAL SCHOOL HOLDS ELECTION

Hyde Chosen President of Athletic Association by Australian Ballot System

In the first application of the Australian balloting system to normal school elections Charles Hyde, a La Crosse boy, was elected president of the athletic association, winning over Frank McDonald of Sparta by a vote of 146 to 86. Miss Bonnie Morgan was the sole contest for the vice presidency and in the race for the secretaryship Ella Gilbertson won a close contest from Frances Egbert. Gertrude Dickens was elected treasurer and Professor Anderson was chosen faculty member of the board of control. The election was carried on under the direction of a committee of which Professor A. H. Sanborn was chairman and the heavy vote cast evidenced the keen interest taken.

The students will be given an opportunity to see the interstate fair, as today, Wednesday and Thursday half sessions will be held with school being adjourned at 12 o'clock. The football team was excused from practice this afternoon in order to attend but every other afternoon regular practice will be held.

A male quartet which will be the official normal school quartet is now engaged in rehearsals. It consists of Victor Jacobson, first tenor; Frank Gore, second tenor; Charles Hyde, second bass, and William Stevenson, first bass.

CHIEF RULES CITY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Signs of dangerous unrest in China appeared yesterday. The government is sending a large force to remove him from office.

Think of Its Advantages
"I have looked over that house which you recommended so highly," said a house-hunter to an estate agent, "and I find the walls damp, the shutters half off, the drainage out of order, the cellar full of water, and the roof leaky." "Yes, sir, I know the house is in a rather bad condition," responded the agent; "but think of the advantages—there isn't a piano within a hundred yards of it!"

What has become of the old-fashioned folk who liked to entertain company?

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold, Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage.

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless. O. T. Erhart.—Advertisement.

FAMOUS DIPLOMAT DIES IN GERMANY

Baron Von Bieberstein Known as Europe's Greatest Foreign Emissary, Dies at Baths

AMBASSADOR TO ENGLAND

Believed by Many He Was Watching Hostile Developments for the Kaiser

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, German ambassador to London, died suddenly today at Badenweiler, Germany, where he was taking the cure.

Baron Marschall was perhaps the best known diplomat in Europe. He represented the kaiser for many years at Constantinople, where he was a power in Turkish affairs. He was considered as a sort of unofficial grand vizier to Sultan Abdul Hamid, and yet, following the latter's deposition, readjusted his methods with such marvelous speed and ingenuity that he was soon as much trusted by the Turks as he had been by the fallen despot.

It was not alone at Constantinople that the baron served his country. As foreign secretary to the kaiser in 1896 he inspired if he did not actually dictate his majesty's famous telegram of sympathy to President Kruger of the Transvaal at the outbreak of the Boer war. The triple alliance was renewed under his regime, and Russian-German co-operation in the orient, after the Chino-Japanese war took place under his auspices.

Early in the days of the talk of universal arbitration, Von Bieberstein, it was the general belief in European diplomatic circles, was the kaiser's choice to block any development at The Hague calculated to embarrass Germany in plans which might necessitate future fighting if they were to be fulfilled according to his majesty's wishes.

Von Bieberstein was transferred from Constantinople a few months ago until it was advertised that his purpose was the restoration of Anglo-German friendship. Many diplomats thought, however, that the kaiser chose him for the London post because he considered it a point of danger and wanted his most trusted representative there to watch developments.

The baron was born in the grand duchy of Baden about 70 years ago. His hobbies were chess, music and gardening. He leaves a widow, a daughter and three sons.

What Privileges

A lady was reading the Old Testament to an old woman who lived at the lodge. The passage she chanced on was that which speaks of the seven hundred wives of Solomon. Presently the old woman said: "Had Solomon really seven hundred wives?" "Oh, yes, Mary," was the reply; "it is so stated in the Bible." "Lor, mum," rejoined the other, "what privileges them early Christians had!"

Domestic Animals Protected.

The mayor of a little commune in the Pyrenees has just issued the following decree: "Whereas the young people of the commune are wont to meet and dance every Sunday after mass and the noise they make frightens the cocks, hens and other animals of the village and whereas the result is prejudicial to agriculture, we hereby prohibit dancing within the bounds of the commune during the hours in which the domestic animals take their repose."

No Maltese Cats in Malta.

There are a few of the so-called Maltese terriers in Malta, but they are not of pure blood, and the puppies which the street hawkers offer for sale to tourists are more or less mongrel, with a strain of the old breed. The Maltese cat does not exist in Malta; at least not one has been seen here of the color called Maltese in the United States.

HOME TREATMENT FOR NERVOUSNESS

It is never too late to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for nervous troubles. You can be certain that a breakdown or exhaustion of your nerves is due to a lack of nourishment caused by thin or impure blood. The starved nerves break down after an unusual strain. This condition is easily remedied with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They start at once to build up the blood, making it richer and purer with every dose, thereby checking further wear on the nerves and the progress of the disease. The new blood makes the nerves more fit every day to do their work.

The thoroughness with which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People act is seen in the clear complexion, better appetite, improved digestion, gain in weight and the freedom from restlessness, sleeplessness, irritability and headaches.

Mrs. J. L. Brennan, of No. 89 Parker street, Brewer, Maine, says: "For three years I suffered with nervousness and was confined to bed one time for six weeks. I couldn't sleep as I was constantly imagining that I saw all sorts of things when I closed my eyes. My stomach was in bad shape and I could eat nothing but light foods. I was troubled with gas on my stomach. I had awful headaches. The pains were through my forehead and were like neuralgia. I became so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor and had to give up my work. My heart would palpitate when I exerted myself, like going up stairs."

"Our doctor said I was nervous and run down but he did not give me enough help and I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a month's time I had been greatly benefited and I took the pills until cured. I am now free from nervousness and can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a grand blood and nerve tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have given gratifying results in nervous debility, nervous headaches, neuralgia, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

We will send free upon request our new booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," to anyone interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct by mail, postpaid, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Governor Johnson said that Roosevelt sentiment was growing hourly in the west and middle west and he predicted that the colonel "undoubtedly would carry Ohio."

MAKES YOUR BACKACHE VANISH, DRIVES ALL RHEUMATIC PAINS AWAY

Discovery Eases Stiff, Sore, Swollen Joints and Muscles While Backache and Bladder Disorders Disappear After Few Doses Are Taken

No matter how badly you suffer, or how chronic your case may be, or what has failed to cure you, your pains will leave, your aches vanish and the torturous, killing backache and rheumatism will bother you no more.

This is what Croxone, the new scientific discovery, does for sufferers of such troubles. It cures these diseases because it reaches the cause and removes it. It soaks right in through the walls and linings of the arteries and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive organs like water does a sponge—neutralizes, and dissolves every particle of uric acid and makes the kidneys sift from the blood all the waste matter and poisons that lodge in the joints and muscles to irritate and cause rheumatism. It soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder and leaves the kidneys in a clean, strong, healthy condition, so they can filter the blood and keep you well.

If you suffer with backache—have pains in the neck or sides—nervous or dizzy spells—a few doses of Croxone will relieve the congestion and you will be surprised how quickly all kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles will disappear.

Croxone is different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else on earth ever used for the purpose. Pills, tablets, and other medicines merely stimulate the kidneys, at the best, giving only temporary relief. Croxone removes the cause. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves your suffering the very first time you use it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.—Advertisement.

Divided Old Island.

Windmill Island occupied a position in the Delaware river between Philadelphia and Camden. A channel that cut through the island for the passage of ferryboats divided it. One-half was afterward known as Smith's Island, the property having been acquired by a family of that name. It was on Smith's Island that the resort known as Ridgway Park was located. Both islands were removed by the government for the purpose of deepening the channel in 1894.

Philosopher on Marriage.

According to Herbert Spencer, love between man and woman arises from each serving as the representative of the other's ideal. This idealism must be preserved if love is to remain, and to insure its preservation there should be no less, but greater, regard for appearances between husband and wife than between any other people. Equality of rights should also be recognized. A man cannot regard as his type of the ideal one whom he tries to command, and whom he has lowered by buying an equality of privilege with himself.

TROLLEY NEEDS MONEY TO FINISH

Line Between Madison and Portage Held Up by the Lack of Capital

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Whether or not the Chicago & Wisconsin Valley Railway company will resume work on its projected interurban line between Madison and Portage, will depend on the success of its promoters in interesting new capital in the venture. A letter received by City Attorney William Tyeen from J. S. Jones of Portage, who acted as manager for the company, indicates that the project is now at a standstill pending such aid. The company planned to build an interurban between Madison and Portage, a line from Madison to Sauk City, another line around Lake Monona and eventually to extend the system to other points north and south in central Wisconsin. A local street car system was built in Portage last summer and a mile or more of track laid in the city of Madison when the work ceased. Recently a resolution was introduced in the city council directing the city attorney to begin proceedings to restrain the company from tearing up any more of the streets of the city in view of the fact that it had not complied with the provisions of its franchise which was about to expire. The resolution was not adopted but referred to the street committee and in the meantime the city attorney has been in correspondence with Manager Jones, who has written that his company was awaiting the developments in negotiating with eastern financial interests and that it would not disturb the streets of Madison without first consulting with the city authorities.

ON MURDER CLEW

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The police today are investigating as a murder mystery clew, a package of torn baby clothes which was found by Walter McKenna, steward of the Chicago Yacht club, at the foot of Randolph street. The garments appear to have been worn by a child about five years old. They include sandals, white stockings, underclothing and a white waist. The steward was told by a man in the neighborhood that a woman dropped the bundle early today and then hurried away.

COUPLE MEET AFTER FIFTY-ONE YEARS

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 24.—William Kroener and his wife met today at the Soldiers' home here for the first time in fifty-one years. Kroener enlisted in the union army at Columbus, Ohio, in 1861, just after his marriage. Both were on the stage at the time.

The war had not progressed long before the young bride heard that her husband was killed. She left the stage and went to New York where her daughter was born.

Returning to Columbus at the close of the war, Kroener was unable to locate his wife. Mrs. Kroener recently was reading a list of government pensioners and found her husband's name entered as a resident of the Soldiers' home here.

Think Human Tears of Value.

In Persia the past and present are linked by the belief that human tears are a remedy for certain diseases. At every funeral, each mourner is given a sponge with which to mop off the eyes and cheeks. After the burial the wet sponges are given to a priest, who squeezes the tears into bottles, which he keeps for curative purposes. This is one of the most ancient of eastern customs. See Fifty-sixth Psalm, verse eight, where David says: "Put thou my tears into thy bottle." This custom is still followed in Persia.—From Bombaugh's "Facts and Fancies."

Explanation of Dreams.

Dr. Freud says that every dream can be taken to pieces for investigation. The dream is not really continuous. It consists of a series of groups centering about what he terms "knots," and by investigating the association of these dream-knots with one's normal life he will learn that the dream was based on a wish or on wishes, some of which may be so vague that he was hardly aware of them.

Women's Valuable Thoughts.

Among the first American patents taken out by women were those for a fountain pen, a baby jumper, and the first cook stove. Another woman was offered $20,000 for her paper bag process.

ST. At the time she filed the suit, alleging cruelty and desertion, the artist's fair wife elaborated on the theme of her reincarnation, and her husband's. They loved in the long ago, and floated down the ancient river in each other's arms on a barge, "lover-liner than Cleopatra's," said Mrs. Ott. "What's a nut?" she was asked.

PLAN BIG DOINGS AT CHURCH MEET

NORTHFIELD, Minn., Sept. 24.—Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of delegates to the fifty-seventh annual meeting of the Congregational Association of Minnesota, which will be held in this city October 1, 2 and 3. It is expected that more than 400 ministers and prominent laymen of the church in Minnesota will attend.

Thoughts on Education.

Educated people are often so stupid as to make one doubt whether the poor can gain all by education. But, on the other hand, uneducated people are often so wise that we fear they have something to lose, even if they have nothing to gain, by being educated. In short, the modern methods of political reform, even when they have done well, have not done so obviously well that it is certain to be a benefit to extend them.

Lack of Proper Courtesy.

There used to be a time, not so very long ago, when if one borrowed anything from a book to a shoe lace one was expected to return it promptly and in good condition. With our younger set one may consider it a miracle if one gets anything back under six months if at all. "I forgot," or "I lost it," seem to be the all apology that many young girls deem necessary.—Exchange.

WILL RE-ELECT ALL C. M. & ST. P. OFFICERS

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 24.—That Roosevelt Miller, New York, chairman of the board; A. J. Earling, Chicago, president, together with all other officers elected in 1911, will be re-elected to their respective positions at the forty-eighth annual meeting of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company to be held here next Saturday, is the summary of a statement given out this afternoon by E. W. Adams, secretary of the company.

BALLOONS AT SEA?

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Six of the 18 balloons which started Sunday in the race for the Aero club's grand prize had not been heard from today and it is feared some have been carried to sea. Others landed in Brittany and along the Normandy coast.

My Feet Never Hurt!

My poor feet used to swell, sweat and smart—burn and callous—all the time. Now I can walk ten miles every day on hard, hot pavements and my feet feel as if they were floating on air—cool, easy, and comfortable. No more corns, bunions or callouses, I use

KUCO No-Chafe POWDER

Just rub a little on your feet every morning before you put on your socks—makes your feet feel as if you were walking in velvet slippers on carpets an inch thick. Prevents all rubbing and chafing. No more smarting, swollen, sweaty feet.

Kuco for the use of both adults and infants—stops chafing on all parts of the body. Does not rub off—but "lays" to the skin in a soft, smooth and almost invisible film. Sold by all good druggists at 25c a box. To ask your druggist for Kuco No-Chafe Powder distinguishes you as a user of the finest toilet requisites, insistent on the most immaculate of personal care.

WIS. IS FOR WILSON

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE'S BROTHER SAYS BADGER STATE IS STRONG FOR THE GOVERNOR

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—William T. La Follette of Madison, Wis., brother of Senator La Follette, but himself a democrat of long standing, thinks Wilson will carry Wisconsin, so he says here today. "There is a large progressive vote in my state for Wilson," he said. "Wisconsin is stronger in progressive republicans than almost any other state in the northwest. Roosevelt sentiment is very light. If he places a full ticket in the field in Wisconsin he cannot poll more than 5,000 to 8,000 votes."

Mr. La Follette predicts that his brother, the senator, will make speeches in Wisconsin and may go out into other states to aid other senators in their districts, but he will probably avoid all reference to the national campaign.

Would be Scared

Two little countryurchins were not old enough to go to school. "What makes a horse act naughty when he sees a motor?" asked one. "Why, it's this way," said the wiser one. "Horses are used to seeing other horses pull wagons, and they don't know what to think of 'em going along without a horse. Why, if you saw a pair of trousers walkin' down the street without a man in 'em you'd be scared too."

Food Value of Milk.

One quart of milk is equal in food value to three-fourths of a pound of lean round steak, eight eggs, six pounds of spinach, seven pounds of lettuce, four pounds of cabbage, two pounds of salt codfish, three pounds of fresh codfish, two pounds of chicken, four pounds of beefs, five pounds of turnips, one-sixth of a pound of butter, one-third of a pound of wheat flour, one-third of a pound of cheese.

Cat Mothers Young Rabbits.

A cat at Hayburn Wyke hotel, near Scarborough, England, is mothering five wild young rabbits together with one of her kittens. The nest of rabbits was found by some men who were digging. They were taken to the hotel, where the cat at once adopted them, all her kittens having been drowned except one.

VANDERBILT HAS HEIR

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The new heir to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's millions—there will be fifty of them after October 10, when Vanderbilt comes into his full inheritance—probably will be named for his father it was said.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Senator Curtis of Kansas told President Taft yesterday the outlook for success of the Taft ticket in Kansas was greatly improved. The president expressed gratification.

"Thirty-six" Five-passenger Touring Car, $1850

Electric lights, Turkish cushions, 11-inch upholstery, thoroughly reliable self-starter, four-forward speed transmission, large wheels and tires, demountable rims, long wheel base, silent, powerful long stroke motor, all-metal bodies, nickel trimmings, genuine cellular radiator dual ignition, power tire inflater, extreme roominess—these are some of the features that make Chalmers cars for 1913 notable.

For 1913 the big improvements in Chalmers cars have been made along the lines of comfort, convenience and appearance. For it is in these qualities that we believe the greatest advances in automobile building are to be made. Mechanically, Chalmers cars have been right from the beginning. Their records in contests of all kinds on road, track and hill, and the service they are rendering in the hands of 27,000 owners, prove this.

And so, while there have been mechanical refinements and improvements, the especial energies of the Chalmers designers have been directed to make Chalmers cars more comfortable, more convenient and more beautiful.

LUXURIOUS COMFORT

To secure the maximum of riding comfort, we have prepared an entirely new line of bodies of exclusive Chalmers design. These bodies are all extremely roomy, with seats generously wide.

Turkish cushions, the best sort of automobile cushions made, and 11 inch upholstery, are soft as a down pillow. The upholstery throughout is of the over-stuffed type, filled with high grade hair and covered with heavy, soft, pebble-grained leather. Please note that the leather is not drawn into hard, tight tufts, but is laid on in soft, flexible folds.

The long wheel base, big wheels and tires, and long elastic springs make all roads smooth.

EASY TO HANDLE

No cars are easier to handle or more convenient for the operator than the 1913 Chalmers.

Electric lighting by the Gray & Davis system, with dynamo and storage battery, is regular equipment on the "Thirty-six" and "Six." The system used on the Chalmers cars has been featured on some of the high priced cars. There is none better built.

CAN A $5,000 MOTOR CAR DO ANY BETTER WORK?

Chalmers Motor Company — The writer has just returned from a tour of about 240 miles through Illinois and Indiana in his self-starting Chalmers "Thirty-six."

I wish to say that I am very much pleased with the action of this car. Between Crete and Muncie, a distance of about 15 miles, we pulled through mud practically up to the radiator all the way. There were many very bad places and at times I had to back up and butt into a hole three or four times before getting through. The car, as well as myself and my good wife, were completely covered with mud. Although the car had been overheated through running over fifteen miles through this deep mud, we continued from Muncie to Kankakee without any indication of the motor missing.

I certainly was thankful on this trip that I had a self-starter, for the mud was so bad that I stalled my engine several times. Yet it started every time without my getting into the mud.

It would be impossible for any car to run better. And I am not even keeping my fingers crossed when I say it.—E. G. Brown, Chicago.

WEISSE LEADS HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM

John "Lump" Weisse was elected captain of the high school basketball team at a meeting of the members of last year's team yesterday afternoon. Weisse is the only regular player on the squad who has played two seasons of high school basketball and he has had enough experience to be able to pilot the team this year.

The team will necessarily be made up of entirely new material because besides Weisse and Dornbach, regulars on the squad of last year, there will be no other experienced players. But a great deal of new material, among which is Fay, Garder and Taylor, will be ready to fill up the gaps.

Dornbach will act as basketball manager and will start to prepare a schedule very soon.

CUBS MUST STAY ON WAGON IN 1913

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—All of the Cub athletes must start the 1913 season on the water wagon and stay on all year, no matter how hard the jolting or it will cost them jobs, or money, perhaps both.

After sizing up the past season, Charles Murphy, the Cub president, decided that had all his ball tossers said buttermilk instead of highballs when the bartender said: "What's yours?" they would now be hugging the National League pennant instead of being a bad second and will have a dry contract next year and see that it is enforced.

You can fool a lot of people with an outward flash.

PUTS CHOICE OF CROOKS TO WALDO

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Responsibility for the appointment to the police force of men with criminal records was put up to Commissioner Waldo this afternoon by James B. Creelman, head of the civil service commission, testifying before the aldermanic probe committee yesterday afternoon. In the cases of the two men charged with perjury and one charged with gambling, Creelman said that Waldo took the matter out of the commission's hands and appointed them.

Moore and Browning "Minstrellogists." at Majestic this first half week credit, Clyde Milan is out for a new American league record. Last year Ty Cobb was the prettier base stealer with a mark of 84.

The Dodgers, thanks to timely bingles by Moran and Stengel, walked away with the Cardinals, seven to two.
